

Special Faculty Trustee Election - The Candidates

Faculty Trustee Election <faculty-trustee-election@uky.edu>

Mon 1/29/2024 02:10 PM

To: Faculty Trustee Election <faculty-trustee-election@uky.edu>

Web Version

Good afternoon,

There are two candidates in this year's faculty trustee election:

- Professor Hubie Ballard
- Professor DeShana Collett

You are eligible to vote. Online voting starts in two weeks (i.e., on February 12).

Please see below the limits on campaigning associated with UK communication resources.

Additional election details are on the Faculty Trustee Election webpage.

Thank you,

Roger Brown
Chair, Senate Rules and Elections Committee
rogerbrown@uky.edu

CC:
Dori Grady in Senate Council Office

LIMITS ON CAMPAIGNING

You may use your own UK email address to email others directly and express your opinions about the qualifications of candidates. As per UK's general policies on IT resources (AR 10:1), that is among the academic freedoms afforded to everyone in our University community.

You must not use UK group communication resources to advocate for or against any trustee candidate. Group communication resources include UK listservs, UK social media tools like Facebook and Twitter/X, and time in UK institutional business meetings (e.g., department faculty meetings).

You may use UK group communication resources to encourage participation in the election, provided such use is not otherwise disallowed and provided you do not advocate for or against any particular candidate.

Candidates may use a special listserv (trusteeelecand@lsv.uky.edu) to communicate with voters. Candidates also have a list of all eligible voters (including voters' unit affiliations and email addresses) that they can use.

This email was sent by: University of Kentucky
410 Administration Drive, Lexington, KY, 40506

Update Preferences Privacy Policy