University Faculty:

A special faculty trustee election will be held soon to identify an eligible faculty member to serve the balance of Dr. Aaron Cramer's term on the UK Board of Trustees.

The election begins with a nomination period from 8AM on January 8 until noon on January 12. A complete election timeline is available at the election webpage.

You are eligible to nominate candidates in this election using the nomination form. You may also be eligible to run and vote. Eligibility determinations were based on information in the faculty database on December 6, 2023. For details about election eligibilities, please consult the document on "Eligibility to Nominate, Run, and Vote in the Faculty Trustee Election." If you believe an error has occurred in determining your or another's eligibility, please follow the "Procedures for Disputing Election Eligibilities."

See the election webpage for other details. Note that election communication policies prohibit use of UK listservs or time in regular faculty meetings to advocate for or against candidates.

Thank you,
