Hybrid: No

1. How does this course provide for timely and appropriate interaction between students and faculty and among students? Does the course syllabus conform to University Senate Syllabus Guidelines, specifically the Distance Learning Considerations? Yes

- 2.How do you ensure that the experience for a DL student is comparable to that of a classroom-based student's experience? Aspects to explore: textbooks, course goals, assessment of student learning outcomes, etc. The "live" course includes primarily reading, writing, and presentations to fellow students. All of these activities can be conducted as productively online as in person.
- 3.How is the integrity of student work ensured? Please speak to aspects such as password-protected course portals, proctors for exams at interactive video sites; academic offense policy; etc. The course will be taught using Blackboard or its successor learning management system (LMS) as designated by UK. Materials are password-protected and are accessible only to enrolled students and instructors. This is a graduate course and students are informed of academic offense policies repeatedly, both in the syllabus and in their orientation to the graduate program.
- 4. Will offering this course via DL result in at least 25% or at least 50% (based on total credit hours required for completion) of a degree program being offered via any form of DL, as defined above? No

If ves, which percentage, and which program(s)? None

- 5. How are students taking the course via DL assured of equivalent access to student services, similar to that of a student taking the class in a traditional classroom setting? Students are informed regarding access to needed services in the syllabus as well as in degree program orientation. The instructor monitors email frequently for indication of student needs for assistance.
- 6. How do course requirements ensure that students make appropriate use of learning resources? Graded assignments reflect student use of learning resources.
- 7.Please explain specifically how access is provided to laboratories, facilities, and equipment appropriate to the course or program. N/A
- 8. How are students informed of procedures for resolving technical complaints? Does the syllabus list the entities available to offer technical help with the delivery and/or receipt of the course, such as the Information Technology Customer Service Center (http://www.uky.edu/UKIT/)? Information about access to technical assistance is provided in the syllabus and at program orientation.
- 9. Will the course be delivered via services available through the Distance Learning Program (DLP) and the Academic Technology Group (ATL)? YES

If no, explain how student enrolled in DL courses are able to use the technology employed, as well as how students will be provided with assistance in using said technology. None

10.Does the syllabus contain all the required components? YES

11.I, the instructor of record, have read and understood all of the university-level statements regarding DL.

Student learning outcomes

The student learning outcomes for this course are articulated in the listing of learning objectives above.

Textbooks

Primary: Goodman et al., Law in Public Health Practice, 2nd ed. (Oxford Univ. Press 2007)

Secondary: Gostin et al., Public Health Law 2nd ed. (Univ. of Calif. Press 2008)

MHA Students: Showalter, J.S., The Law of Healthcare Administration, 5th ed. (Chicago, IL: Health Administration Press).

The texts will be supplemented by material from the CDC Public Health Law News (www2a.cdc.gov/phlp/cphln.asp) and original source materials in a course reader on the course website through Blackboard. Each student is responsible for becoming adequately proficient in Blackboard to access all course materials and post all presentations. Other handouts may be used as supplements.

Graded Materials:

Class participation: 5% Chapter presentation: 25% Case presentation: 30%

Final exam: 40%

Grading Scale

100-90% =A 89-80% =B

79-70% =C

0-69% =E

Cases and other materials for presentation

Students will select a case from the list below or with approval of the instructor and prepare an oral presentation of about 15 minutes and a written summary of 6-8 pages. The oral case presentations will be made on the dates when the materials appear in the syllabus. The written case reports will be due via Blackboard at the beginning of the last class meeting on April 29. A partial list of cases follows.

- 1. Pelman v. McDonald's (obesity)
- 2. FDA v. Brown & Williamson (tobacco)
- 3. Kelo v. City of New London (takings clause)
- 4. U.S. v. Morrison (private right of action under VAWA)
- 5. Gonzalez v. Carhart (abortion)
- 6. Westside Mothers (legal status of Medicaid service access)
- 7. Castle Rock v. Gonzalez (enforcement of emergency protective order)
- 8. Gonzalez v. Raich (medical marijuana)
- 9. Grimes v. Kennedy-Krieger Institute (research ethics)
- 10. Wyeth v. Levine (pharmaceutical liability)
- 11. Cedillo v. HHS (vaccination side effects)
- 12. Arafiles case (whistleblower retaliation)
- 13. Anaya et al. v Kleine (mandatory newborn screening)
- 14. District of Columbia v. Heller (second amendment firearms case)
- 15. Sorrell v. IMS Health (use of prescribing information for pharma marketing)
- 16. NFIB v. Sebelius (constitutionality of Affordable Care Act)
- 17. Hobby Lobby Stores, Inc. v. Sebelius (constitutionality of contraceptive coverage mandate)
- 18. Halbig and King cases with Supreme Court ruling (pending; premium assistance for enrollees in federally facilitated health insurance exchanges)

Chapter readings represent an integral source of foundational knowledge in the class. Each student is expected to provide a summary oral presentation of an assigned chapter to the class via Blackboard. The presentation should include a summary of the key points and five questions for discussion by the class. Each student is responsible for posting responses on the Blackboard discussion board to at least 3 of the questions in the week following the posting. Specifics will be available in the reading schedule for the semester in which the course is offered.

Final Exam

The final exam will be take-home in which students will work independently in responding to a series of essay questions. The exam will be made available on Blackboard, and students will have at least 4 full days to complete the exam, which is due via Blackboard on May 5th at 2:30PM...

Technical Requirements for the Course:

In order to have a successful educational experience in distance learning courses, there are minimum technology requirements that should be met. The University of Kentucky strongly recommends that each student purchase a personal computer. To review minimum recommendations and guidelines for your computer click here.

University of Kentucky distance learning students are also encouraged to acquire the following hardware, software and internet connection to ensure that all systems used by distance learning courses will function properly.

Hardware: Headset with a microphone

Webcam (recommended)

Software: The latest version of Java (available here)

The latest version of Adobe Flash (available here)

The latest version of Adobe Acrobat Reader (available here)

Microsoft Office (available free to students through http://download.uky.edu/)

Internet

Connection: 1 MBPS Broadband Connection

If you have any questions or need assistance, the UKIT Service Desk is available for all supported student technology needs. Information for how to contact the Service Desk can be found here.

Distance Learning Library Services

The goal of Distance Learning Library Services is to provide access to information resources for the students who take classes through Distance Learning Programs. The Distance Learning Library Service is staffed by a full-time librarian. More information can be located here.

- Carla Cantagallo, DL Librarian, Email: dllservice@lsv.uky.edu
- 859-218-1240

Students may also wish to take advantage of resources offered by Presentation-U. More information can be found at http://www.uky.edu/UGE/pres-u

Blackboard and E-mail Communication:

All course materials will be posted on Blackboard. Students are advised to familiarize themselves with Blackboard before the semester begins.

Students may receive important information via their UK email accounts and are encouraged to check email at least once a day during the semester.

Appropriate Online Behavior

Students are expected to maintain decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, to regularly log in to the course, and to display an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the educational opportunity. All students are expected to be prepared to work and actively participate in class activities.

Virtual communication and discussion in cyberspace occur in a social environment where normal rules of social interaction apply. The remoteness of the recipients is no excuse to behave in an anti-social manner and post unacceptable messages.

Unacceptable messages include those that harass, intimidate, threaten, belittle, ridicule, expressed hatred for, or aggression toward others. Let us be mindful to avoid words that imply that some groups of people are less worthy than others (e.g., avoid racist, sexist, anti-Semitic, age-ist, and homophobic language). Discussion board and other electronic communication for this course should relate only to the course subject matter, generally respond to the instructor threads, and always seek to further the aims of that particular discussion forum or chat session (e.g., stay on topic).

Contributions to discussion boards and synchronous chat are the intellectual property of the authors. Students who quote another person in class projects, publications or even in remarks made on the discussion board should always acknowledge the source of that quote (e.g., do not plagiarize your classmates).

Personal comments about other users and their views should not be placed in any of our Blackboard course areas that are viewable by other users.

Do not copy private messages to another person without the author's explicit permission. Consult the UK Student Rights and Responsibilities regarding the steps for addressing unresolved academic issues at http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code/part2.html

Additional Instructor expectations

- 1. Class preparation and participation are assumed and expected
- 2. I expect you to actively participate in class discussion threads and other assignments as applicable. Participation will significantly enhance the learning experience.
- 3. I expect you to be respectful of the answers and opinions of others.
- 4. I expect you to submit papers using proper English grammar, syntax, and spelling. You are encouraged to use spell check and grammar check prior to submitting your written work. The Writing Laboratory is available to anyone who may need assistance. Grammar, syntax, and spelling will account for 10% of the grade for written work.
- 5. I expect (and encourage) you to provide honest and timely feedback regarding the content and process of this course throughout the semester.
- 6. I expect you during the semester to interactively engage via Blackboard with the other students and the instructor.

- 7. I expect you to share in the responsibility for making this course an enjoyable and beneficial learning experience.
- 8. Wikipedia cannot be used as a cited reference as noted by a co-founder of Wikipedia! You may use Wikipedia to identify appropriate source material. Remember Wikipedia is not peer reviewed!

Academic Integrity

Per university policy, students shall not plagiarize, cheat, or falsify or misuse academic records. Students are expected to adhere to University policy on cheating and plagiarism in all courses. The minimum penalty for a first offense is a zero on the assignment on which the offense occurred. If the offense is considered severe or the student has other academic offenses on their record, more serious penalties, up to suspension from the university may be imposed.

Plagiarism and cheating are serious breaches of academic conduct. Each student is advised to become familiar with the various forms of academic dishonesty as explained in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Complete information can be found at the following website: http://www.uky.edu/Ombud. A plea of ignorance is not acceptable as a defense against the charge of academic dishonesty. It is important that you review this information as all ideas borrowed from others need to be properly credited.

Part II of Student Rights and Responsibilities (available online http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code/part2.html) states that all academic work, written or otherwise, submitted by students to their instructors or other academic supervisors, is expected to be the result of their own thought, research, or self-expression. In cases where students feel unsure about the question of plagiarism involving their own work, they are obliged to consult their instructors on the matter before submission.

When students submit work purporting to be their own, but which in any way borrows ideas, organization, wording or anything else from another source without appropriate acknowledgement of the fact, the students are guilty of plagiarism. Plagiarism includes reproducing someone else's work, whether it be a published article, chapter of a book, a paper from a friend or some file, or something similar to this. Plagiarism also includes the practice of employing or allowing another person to alter or revise the work which a student submits as his/her own, whoever that other person may be.

Students may discuss assignments among themselves or with an instructor or tutor, but when the actual work is done, it must be done by the student, and the student alone. When a student's assignment involves research in outside sources of information, the student must carefully acknowledge exactly what, where and how he/she employed them. If the words of someone else are used, the student must put quotation marks around the passage in question and add an appropriate indication of its origin. Making simple changes while leaving the organization, content and phraseology intact is plagiaristic. However, nothing in these Rules shall apply to those ideas which are so generally and freely circulated as to be a part of the public domain (Section 6.3.1).

Please note: Any assignment you turn in may be submitted to an electronic database to check for plagiarism.

Accommodations due to disability

If you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodations, please see me as soon as possible during scheduled office hours. In order to receive accommodations in this course, you must provide me with a Letter of Accommodation from the Disability Resource Center (Room 2, Alumni Gym, 257-2754, email address: jkarnes@email.uky.edu) for coordination of campus disability services available to students with disabilities.

Religious Observances

Students will be given the opportunity to make up work (typically, exams or assignments) when students notify their instructor that religious observances prevent the student from completing assignments according to deadlines stated in this syllabus. Students must notify the course instructor at least two weeks prior to such an absence and propose how to make up the missed academic work.

Inclement weather

The University of Kentucky has a detailed policy for decisions to close in inclement weather. This policy is described in detail at http://www.uky.edu/PR/News/severe weather.htm or you can call (859) 257-1754.

Late work policy

[State your requirements for timeliness of work including penalty/no penalty for late work]

Excused absences policy

Students need to notify the professor of absences prior to class when possible. S.R. 5.2.4.2 defines the following as acceptable reasons for excused absences: (a) serious illness, (b) illness or death of family member, (c) University-related trips, (d) major religious holidays, and (e) other circumstances found to fit "reasonable cause for nonattendance" by the professor.

Students anticipating an absence for a major religious holiday are responsible for notifying the instructor in writing of anticipated absences due to their observance of such holidays no later than the last day in the semester to add a class. Information regarding dates of major religious holidays may be obtained through the religious liaison, Mr. Jake Karnes (859-257-2754).

Students are expected to withdraw from the class if more than 20% of the classes scheduled for the semester are missed (excused or unexcused) per university policy.

Verification of Absences

Students may be asked to verify their absences in order for them to be considered excused. Senate Rule 5.2.4.2 states that faculty have the right to request "appropriate verification" when students claim an excused absence because of illness or death in the family. Appropriate notification of absences due to university-related trips is required prior to the absence.
