Course Description in UK Bulletin

The Information Revolution fundamentally changed the way schools operate at the beginning of the 21st century—not only has technology facilitated improved school operations, but also is radically changing how students learn inside and outside of the classroom. ELS 609 emphasizes the role of the teacher leader in improving the school-wide technology integration and use of technology beyond the classroom to link people and resources to integrate more innovation into the school environment.

Major Course Objectives

Billions of dollars are spent each year on technology for schools in the U.S. (Anderson & Dexter, 2004). Standards are published, such as the NETS-T (2008) and the NETS-A (2009), in an ongoing effort to prioritize technology adoption. And, generally, institutions spend a great deal of effort speaking on the importance of technology. Yet, technology leaders are scarce. The objectives for this course are to leverage your leadership as a teacher to move schools toward innovation. To do so, in this course you will learn about how our schools have changed and how they must continue to change. You will learn about effective technology integration and study exemplary cases. You will learn about technology tools that might be effective in building professional learning communities around technology. And, finally, you will build your own personal learning network to advance your own learning once the class is finished.

Required Course Textbook and Readings

Professional reading and reflection are fundamental components of this course; however, this course does not require a textbook. Instead, readings (or viewing in the case of videos) are required for each learning period. The schedule contains information on the required readings, many accessible from the World Wide Web, and required video viewing.

Integration of Syllabus with UK College of Education Conceptual Framework

This graduate course addresses the four themes within the conceptual framework of the UK College of Education: research, reflection, learning, and leading. Throughout the semester students have opportunities to review, analyze, discuss, and apply research from diverse perspectives in education, including professional scholarship and practitioner inquiry and reflect on their own practices as P-12 educators as they study, observe, and work in P-12 school and university classrooms. Reflection is integrated regularly through oral and written communication to help students hone their analytical and problem-solving skills that comprise critical professional reflection on one's own practice. This course emphasizes the commitment of the UK College of Education to ensure that its graduates continue their professional careers equipped for life-long learning as educators actively leading colleagues in their schools, districts, and professional organizations. The ultimate goal in addressing these four themes is to produce educational leaders who work together to improve student learning among diverse populations and improve education in Kentucky and beyond.

Commitment to Diversity

UK is committed to making diversity central to university policies, decisions, and practices to strengthen diversity within the Commonwealth. Efforts by a broad-based task force appointed by President Todd defined diversity as embracing difference or promoting increased knowledge regarding race/ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual orientation, disability, veteran affairs, and thought within an inclusive community. This definition of diversity values an inclusive institutional culture, academic programs, and co-curricular activities that prepare students for active, global citizenship. This commitment further allows for an educational process that fosters growth among all members of the academic community by including a wide array of talents, and recognizing the human differences are organizational strengths (University-Wide Comprehensive Diversity Plan Task Force Report, April 2005, p. 6).

Because the desired outcome is excellence in education, UK “does not practice discrimination on the basis of race/ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual orientation, or disability” (p. 6).

The College of Education supports the university-wide definition of diversity and enhances it through an expanded interpretation. This broader conceptualization of diversity includes learning exceptionalities, native languages, socioeconomic status, and life experiences often created by residing in unique geographical regions such as Appalachia. Curricula within the UK College of Education, field experiences, and membership of its faculty and student body reflect a commitment to diversity.

Leading successful P-12 schools and districts requires understanding of and sensitivity to differences among groups of people and individuals based on ethnicity, race, socioeconomic status, gender, exceptionalities, language, religion, sexual orientation, and geographical area. Hence, diversity is a theme woven throughout this graduate course, which focuses on preparing and developing principals and other educational leaders with requisite knowledge, dispositions, and skills to practice effectively the multiple responsibilities of school leadership and change agency.

UK Policies

The adopted UK academic policies apply in this course and are articulated in the Students Rights and Responsibilities Handbook and the UK Graduate Bulletin. Important policies and regulations applicable to this course include, but are not limited to, those concerning attendance, cheating and plagiarism, course withdrawal, incomplete grades, and acceptable standards of English. As the instructor, I retain absolute discretion concerning acceptance of required assignments after established due dates and reserve the right to lower grades on assignments submitted late.

Absences. The University defines acceptable reasons for absences as (a) serious illness, (b) university-related trips, (c) major religious holidays, and (d) other circumstances that the instructor finds to be “reasonable cause for nonattendance.” Because the class meets only five times, regular attendance is essential. If students must miss a scheduled class meeting, then they must notify me about the reason for the absence before it occurs. In the event of emergency absences (e.g., personal illness, major accident, death of family member), students should notify me as soon as possible, preferably through e-mail communication. Additional assignments may be required for missed class meetings.

Canceled Class. If a class meeting must be canceled due to bad weather or other unforeseen circumstances, I will make every possible effort to contact you in sufficient time to avoid an unnecessary travel.

Changes to Syllabus. I retain the right to modify this syllabus, if necessary, to meet the learning objectives of this course. Changes to this syllabus will be discussed with you and provided in writing as an addendum distributed electronically via e-mail and posted on the course Blackboard.

Go to www.research.uky.edu/g/bulletin/bullinfo.shtml for more information about UK Policies.

Distance Learning Considerations

This course requires use of information technology: Students are expected to have regular access to a personal computer and the Internet to complete their learning activities. All Web-based activities are to be completed within designated sections of the course Blackboard, which can be accessed through <http://elearning.uky.edu>.

Teaching and Academic Support Services. Contact the UK Teaching and Academic Support Center for assistance via the Web (<http://www.uky.edu/TASC/>) or via telephone (859-257-8272).

Procedures for Resolving Technological Problems. Contact the UK Information Technology Customer Service Center via the Web (<http://uky.edu/UKIT>) or telephone (859-257-1300).

Information on Distance Learning Library Services: The UK Library provides support for distance-learning students via the Web (www.uky.edu/Libraries/DLLS). You may also contact the DL Librarian, Carla Cantagallo, directly via electronic mail (dlservice@email.uky.edu) or telephone (859-257-0500 x 2171 or 800-828-0439).

Document Delivery and Interlibrary Loan Services. Contact the UK Library to request book not at UK via http://www.uky.edu/Libraries/libpage.php?lweb\_id=253&llib\_id=16.

Students with a Documented Disability. The UK Disability Resource Center (<http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/DisabilityResourceCenter/>) provides support for those needing accommodations. Contact Jacob Karnes, Jr., Associate Dean of Students and Director of the Disability Resource Center, via e-mail (jkarnes@email.uky.edu) or telephone (859-257-2754) if you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodations in this course. The Center will require current disability documentation. When accommodations are approved, the Center will provide me a letter that details the recommended accommodations for you.

Maximum Timeframe for Responding to Student Communications. Electronic mail addressed to justin.bathon@uky.edu is the best method for communicating with me. I shall make every effort to respond to electronic mail messages within 48 hours excluding weekends or holidays or when the automatic reply is an out-of-office message. In case of emergency, please call my office (859-257-7845) or the EDL office (859-257-8921).

Collaboration with School Partners

In accordance with requirements from the Kentucky Education Professional Standards Board (EPSB) to include partners, input from the Central Kentucky Educational Cooperative (CKEC), Fayette County Public Schools (FCPS) and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) personnel are involved in the design and delivery of this course.

Standards-based Curriculum

ELS 609 is an elective course for the MEd in Educational Leadership Studies designed to meet the requirements established by the Kentucky Educational Professional Standards Board (EPSB). Thus, course content is based on the Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium (ISLLC) Standards for School Leaders adopted by Kentucky in 1998 and updated in 2008.<sup>1</sup> Although ELS 609 focuses specifically on technology leadership, the four central, recurring themes within the original standards provide a framework for teacher leadership including:

- A Vision for Success
- A Focus on Teaching and Learning
- An Involvement of all Stakeholders
- Demonstration of Ethical Behavior (Hessel & Holloway, 2002, p. 21)<sup>2</sup>.

This course is also structured to align with these other professional standards:

The advanced-level performance Kentucky Teacher Standards (KTS) are integrated into content, assignments, and assessments as noted in Regulation 16 KAR 5:0101 Section 12 and the master's redesign guidelines as adopted by the EPSB in 2007. The complete list of standards and indicators are available at <http://www.kyepsb.net/teacherprep/standards.asp>. ELS 609 addresses the following specific Kentucky Teacher Standards: KTS 3 Create/Maintain Learning Climate, KTS 4 Implement/Manage Instruction, KTS 5 Assess/Communicate Learning Progress; KTS 7 Reflect/Evaluate Teaching and Learning; KTS 8 Collaborate Others; KTS 9 Evaluate Teaching/Implement Professional Development; and KTS 10 Provide Leadership.

The Kentucky Education Professional Standards Board adopted the Interdisciplinary Early Childhood Education (IECE) *New Teacher Standards for Preparation and Certification: Interdisciplinary Early Childhood Education Birth to Primary and now requires use of the 2003 revised version. The IECE standards are closely aligned with KTS and integrated as appropriate into ELS 609 content, assignments, and assessments. A copy of the revised standards is available at <http://www.kyepsb.net/teacherprep/iecestandards.asp>

Quality of Student Work

Unless specified otherwise, all papers submitted to me must be presented in the writing style and format described in the fifth edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association<sup>4</sup>, specifically those found on pages 296-320. All papers must be word-processed in Times New Roman 12-point font. Students are expected to follow rules of usage and principles of composition<sup>5</sup>. When the two resources listed in the footnote below present differing rules, students are to adhere to the academic writing guidelines in the APA Manual.

Plagiarism. Where appropriate, references to professional and research literature need to be integrated into the text and cited at the end of all papers. According to UK rules, the minimum consequence for cheating or plagiarism is an “E” in the course. Cheating or plagiarism is basically stealing ideas or intellectual property created by others. Students are cautioned to reference all resources properly: The mere re-phrasing of another author’s work does not excuse the student from the requirement for including proper citations. Cite all your sources accurately and appropriately! Be aware that re-cycling of assignments from other courses can be interpreted as self-plagiarizing and fails to meet the minimal standards of intellectual rigor required in graduate study.

Late Submittals. Assignment due dates are provided in the course calendar on pages 7-8. Exceptions will only be made for extreme emergencies.

Incomplete Grade. Incomplete grades for this course are issued reluctantly and sparingly. The UK Graduate School permits students one calendar year—unless a shorter time frame is determined mutually by the student and instructor—to remove an “I” grade. If the contracted work is not completed satisfactorily, the “I” grade converts automatically to an “E” (a failing mark). UK and EDL rules require students requesting an “I” grade to complete a contract specifying how and when the “I” will be removed within the calendar year. The contract must be submitted to me before an “I” grade can be issued. Incomplete work and missing assignments will be assigned “E” grades if the student does not submit a completed Incomplete Grade Contract by the course deadline.

Student Responsibilities

Graduate students assume major responsibility for their own learning. As members of a learning group, they are likewise responsible for helping their peers by consulting with them and engaging in collaborative problem solving before seeking assistance from me. A class roster will be posted in the course Blackboard site to encourage and support communication.

Requirements

With the exception of class participation, additional information on all the course requirements will be provided by the instructor. The following are a list of course requirements for which points have been allocated and from which the final grade will be determined.

- 1. Class Participation: Due to the course format, schedule and content, attendance is essential. Absences are reflected in a student's grade. Students are required to attend all classes, participate in discussions, interact with others in group work, and read the assigned material prior to each class.
- 2. Technology Tool Show and Tell: Students will select a technology tool from a list or find their own and review its purpose and operation. The students will both present the review to the class in 5 min. or less and will write a short (1-2 page) review of the tool and its possible application to their school.
- 3. Online Journal: Students will start a blog (space provided or students can select their own) where they will post minimal weekly reflections on technology leadership issues. The journal will be judged on the quality of the reflection, not on the aesthetics.
- 5. Build a Personal Learning Network: Students will be expected to show evidence of having built and honed their own personal learning network. The personal learning network can have both digital and paper components, but it should include a variety of sources providing information on a variety of sources important to all elements of your future teacher leadership. Students will submit an overview of their personal learning network (approx. 2-3 pages) with a list of the different elements and how they are advancing your own personal learning.

Grading Scale

Course grades are based on a cumulative point total. The relative weighting for each of these expectations is presented in the matrix below.

Class Assignments/Expectations	Points Possible
1. General Class Participation	20
2. Tech Show and Tell	40
3. Online Journal	40
4. Personal Learning Network	100
Total Points	200

Grades will be assigned according to the following scale: A=90-100 percentage points, B=80-89 percentage points, C=70-79 percentage points, E=<70 percentage points. Course credit: one graduate hour.

Distance Learning Form

This form must accompany every submission of a new/change course form that requests distance learning delivery. This form may be required when changing a course already approved for DL delivery. All fields are required!

Introduction/Definition: For the purposes of the Commission on Colleges Southern Association of Colleges and Schools accreditation review, distance learning is defined as a formal educational process in which the majority of the instruction (interaction between students and instructors and among students) in a course occurs when students and instructors are not in the same place. Instruction may be synchronous or asynchronous. A distance learning (DL) course may employ correspondence study, or audio, video, or computer technologies.

A number of specific requirements are listed for DL courses. The department proposing the change in delivery method is responsible for ensuring that the requirements below are satisfied at the individual course level. It is the responsibility of the instructor to have read and understood the university-level assurances regarding an equivalent experience for students utilizing DL (available at <http://www.uky.edu/USC/New/forms.htm>).

Curriculum and Instruction

1. How does this course provide for timely and appropriate interaction between students and faculty and among students? Does the course syllabus conform to University Senate Syllabus Guidelines, specifically the Distance Learning Considerations?

The ELS 609 - Technology Leadership in Schools(see attached syllabus), conforms to all University of Kentucky Distance Learning Syllabus Guidelines and specifically includes information about virtual office hours, procedures for resolving technical issues, notification and information about self-disclosure and procedures for disability accommodations etc. Web-based (Blackboard, Bb ) course delivery methods will be used for 60% of individual student engagement and course interactions (i.e.) 3 Bb and 2 Face-to-face seminars. Blackboard assignments described in the syllabus include: (1) Asynchronous Dialogue: Students are required to interact with their class peers or conduct a Web-based readiness self-assessment survey; (2) Class Participation: Students are expected to attend the class meetings, actively participate in discussions and activities, and complete independent work as presented on the course calendar and, (3) Personal Learning Network: Students will build an online personal learning network using tools such as twitter; (4) Online Journal: Students will keep an online journal using a blogging platform; (5) Tech Show and Tell: Students will find a useful technology tool and explain how that tool may be useful to others. Class and Blackboard (Bb) discussions are intended to facilitate critical thinking about their role as a professional educator and build their capacity to improve her/his own learning. Discussion questions and asynchronous dialogue with other students in class on Blackboard will enhance critical thinking.

Distance Learning Form

This form must accompany every submission of a new/change course form that requests distance learning delivery. This form may be required when changing a course already approved for DL delivery. All fields are required!

2.	How do you ensure that the experience for a DL student is comparable to that of a classroom-based student's experience? Aspects to explore: textbooks, course goals, assessment of student learning outcomes, etc. The course is designed as a hybrid that combines classroom-based and online (Web-based) learning and teaching formats. The Distance Learning experience for students enrolled in this hybrid course is based on a cohort model and will be comparable to classroom-based instruction. The web-based, Blackboard format aligns with effective adult learning formats and include timely access to the course instructor and peers as well as feedback on reflections and assessment of assignments. The syllabus clearly explicates students' reading assignments including required textbook(s), research-based journal articles and book chapters. All assignments are aligned with stated course objectives (goals). Instructor-student interaction is comparable to classroom instructional methods. Student performance is assessed by the instructor by through participation in and monitoring of asynchronus, on-line interactions, observations of in-class discussions, feedback on Individual Reflections (on-line), evaluation of Reflection Papers (see syllabus). A course requirement includes completing an On-Line Video Review of PLC's to ensure all students have adequate background knowledge.
3.	How is the integrity of student work ensured?
