Subject: Announcement of Candidates

University Faculty:

This email is to announce the five candidates certified for the upcoming faculty trustee election. The nomination period ended last week on Wednesday, March 2. Online voting will begin after Spring Break.

The five certified candidates in the faculty trustee election are (listed alphabetically):

Hubie Ballard
Richard Charnigo
Aaron Cramer
Candice Hargons
Jason Keinsley

Click on the name of any candidate above to view that faculty member's official UK webpage.

Be aware that use of one's own UK email address to express individual opinions about the qualifications of candidates is encouraged and considered part of the academic freedom of our University community. However, you should refrain from using existing University listservs, unit distribution lists, and other similar University resources to advocate for or against any candidate(s). For details about this policy or if you have questions, please visit the Senate Council faculty trustee election website.

Shared governance is critical to effective decision-making at the University of Kentucky. Thank you for participating in this important election process.
