Subject: Faculty Trustee Election

Members of the University Faculty:

The term of a current faculty trustee is ending on June 30, 2023. Under state law (KRS 164.131), an election must be held to determine a member of the University Faculty body who will fill the seat for the new term that begins July 1, 2023.

The UK Board of Trustees has delegated to the University Senate the authority to conduct the election (GR II.B.2.B.1), and the University Senate has in turn delegated the certification of candidate and voter eligibility in the election to the Senate's Rules and Elections Committee (SR 1.4.2.1).

This email is to announce that eligibility lists are now available showing those who are certified to nominate, run, and vote in the upcoming Faculty Trustee election. You have been identified as one who is eligible to nominate candidates in this election. You may also be eligible to run and vote.

To review and confirm your eligibility to nominate, run, or vote in this election, visit the University Senate website and access the 2023 trustee election webpage or you can use the links below to view a list directly:

- List of Those Eligible to Vote in the Faculty Trustee Election (PDF)

The SREC Elections Subcommittee determined your eligibility based on information in the UK Effort Planning System (EPS) database on January 10, 2023. For details about election eligibilities, please consult the document on "Eligibility to Nominate, Run, and Vote in the Faculty Trustee Election." If you believe an error has occurred in determining your or another's eligibility, please follow the "Procedures for Disputing Election Eligibilities."

The formal nomination period will begin on Wednesday, February 22, 2023 with another email from me with further instructions. The nomination period will end on Thursday, March 2 at noon. The nomination petition form is available at the University Senate website at the trustee election webpage.

Other information and policies are posted on the trustee election webpage at the University Senate website. As per election communication policies, do not use UK listservs or time in regular faculty meetings to advocate for candidates.
