Subject: Faculty Trustee Election Nomination Period

University faculty:

The nomination period for the faculty trustee election is now open. Use this form to nominate eligible candidate by noon on Thursday, March 2, 2023.

The term of a current Faculty Trustee is ending on June 30, 2023. Under state law (KRS 164.131), an election must be held to determine a member of the University Faculty body who will fill the seat for the new term that begins July 1, 2023.

The UK Board of Trustees has delegated to the University Senate the authority to conduct the election (GR II.A.2.B.1), and the University Senate has in turn delegated the certification of candidate and voter eligibility in the election to the Senate's Rules and Elections Committee (SR 1.4.2.2).

The nomination form is available at the Senate Council office (203E Main Building) and online at the University Senate website at the 2023 Trustee Election webpage. Also online are lists of faculty who are eligible to nominate, run, and vote in this election.* You are eligible to nominate candidates in this election.

The UK Board of Trustees is the highest governing body of the University. The board establishes policies that affect all aspects of your work here.

Several past faculty trustee representatives have generously agreed to share with others their experiences serving in this important role. Please email me for their contact information.

I urge all individuals who are eligible to participate in election activities to do so to ensure the quality of the election and to maximize the stature of the chosen Faculty Trustee representative on the Board of Trustees.

Roger Brown
Chair, Senate Rules and Elections Committee (SREC)
