Subject: Faculty Trustee Election Update

Hello Eligible Voters,

This is an update on the faculty trustee election.

THE CANDIDATES

The SREC certified two eligible candidates to run in the faculty trustee election. In alphabetical order, those candidates are:

Professor Karen Petrone
Professor Hollie Swanson

Please learn about the candidates. Click on the candidates' names to read their election statements. Their statements and other election-related information are at the Senate's 2023 faculty trustee election webpage.

ELECTION TIMELINE

With only two candidates, we will move directly to the final voting round (SR 1.5.2.2). Voting will run from Monday, March 27 at 8am to Monday, April 3 at noon. I will email you at the start of this voting period.

Please plan to vote. A high voter turnout is critical to empower our elected representatives to the Board. The voter turnout in last year's election (66%) was the highest in more than a dozen years and drew the immediate attention of UK's top administrators.

CAMPAIGN PERMISSIONS

You may use your own UK email address to email others directly and express your opinions about the qualifications of candidates. As per UK's general policies on IT resources (AR 10:1), that is among the academic freedoms afforded to everyone in our University community.

You may not use UK group communication resources to advocate for or against any trustee candidate. Group communication resources include UK listservs, UK social media tools like Facebook and Twitter, and time in UK institutional business meetings (e.g., department faculty meetings).

You may use UK group communication resources to encourage participation in the election, provided such use is not otherwise disallowed and provided you do not advocate for or against any particular candidate.

The candidates have a special listserv (facultytrusteeelections-l@lsv.uky.edu) that they can use to communicate with voters. They also have a list of all eligible voters (including voters' unit affiliations and email addresses) that they can use.

See the Policy on Prohibition on Use of UK Communication Resources to Advocate for Candidates at the election webpage for additional details.

Thank you.
