Proposed to be taught off campus? No

If YES, enter the off campus address:

4. Are significant changes in content/student learning outcomes of the course being proposed? Yes

Current Course Report

If YES, explain and offer brief rational: Students are currently required to take two other traditional accounting classes in The College of Business (ACC 201 &ACC 202). An additional course in Hospitality Accounting is redundant. Faculty agree that revenue management has been an important component of hospitality management and our students' current exposure to this is mainly through a chapter in a lodging textbook and warrants its own class.

- 1. How does this course provide for timely and appropriate interaction between students and faculty and among students? Does the course syllabus conform to University Senate Syllabus Guidelines, specifically the Distance Learning Considerations?
- 2. How do you ensure that the experience for a DL student is comparable to that of a classroom-based student's experience? Aspects to explore: textbooks, course goals, assessment of student learning outcomes, etc.
- 3. How is the integrity of student work ensured? Please speak to aspects such as password-protected course portals, proctors for exams at interactive video sites; academic offense policy; etc.
- 4 Will offering this course via DL result in at least 25% or at least 50% (based on total credit hours required for completion) of a degree program being offered via any form of DL, as defined above?

If yes, which percentage, and which program(s)?

- 5. How are students taking the course via DL assured of equivalent access to student services, similar to that of a student taking the class in a traditional classroom setting?
- 6 How do course requirements ensure that students make appropriate use of learning resources?
- 7.Please explain specifically how access is provided to laboratories, facilities, and equipment appropriate to the course or program.
- 8. How are students informed of procedures for resolving technical complaints? Does the syllabus list the entities available to offer technical help with the delivery and/or receipt of the course, such as the Information Technology Customer Service Center (http://www.uky.edu/UKIT/)?

Current Course Report

9. Will the course be delivered via services available through the Distance Learning Program (DLP) and the Academic Technology Group (ATL)? NO

If no, explain how student enrolled in DL courses are able to use the technology employed, as well as how students will be provided with assistance in using said technology.

- 10.Does the syllabus contain all the required components? NO
- 11.I, the instructor of record, have read and understood all of the university-level statements regarding DL.

USee comment description regarding minor course change. Minor changes are sent directly from dean's office to Senate Council Chair. If Chair deems the change as "not minor," the form will appropriate academic Council for normal processing and contact person is informed.

Courses are typically made effective for the semester following approval. No course will be made effective until all approvals are received.

Courses are typically made effective for the semester following approval. No course will be made effective until all approvals are received.

Removing a cross-listing does not drop the other course — It merely unlinks the two courses.

Coentrally, undergrad courses are developed such that one semester hr of credit represents 1 hr of classroom meeting per wk for a semester, exclusive of any lab meeting. Lab meeting gene least two hrs per wk for a semester for 1 credit hour. (See SR 5.2.1.)

You must also submit the Distance Learning Form in order for the course to be considered for DL delivery.

Course Description

This course explores the skills and role of revenue managers in hospitality management as well as discussing the benefits of revenue management practices and systems. Consideration is given to concepts such as pricing, value, forecasting, inventory, distribution and evaluation as it relates to maximizing revenue in hospitality. Prereq: HMT 120 and ACC 201. For Hospitality Management and Tourism Majors only.

Course Objectives

This course will provide the students an opportunity to:

- Understand the role and responsibility of revenue managers within an organization.
- Examine the skills revenue managers must know in order to effectively manage their inventories and prices.
- Understand how and why consumers use scarce financial resources to make purchasing decisions.
- Apply economic principles such as supply, demand, consumer rationality and pricing to hospitality settings.
- Understand how businesses determine prices and how their customers perceive prices

Course Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- Describe the concepts of strategic pricing, value and differential pricing in hospitality related settings.
- Utilize data from a STR report to forecast future demand of hospitality industry related goods and services in a specific market.
- Develop and defend a management strategy to control inventory and pricing of hospitality industry related goods and services.
- Compare and contrast the effectiveness of revenue management strategies for sales optimization.
- Evaluate and choose appropriate distribution channels when pricing and selling hospitality industry related goods and services.
- Evaluate the success of a revenue management decisions and discuss the implications of revenue management strategies.
- Apply revenue management principles in a variety of settings and under various economic conditions.

Hayes, D. K. & Miller, A. A. (2011). Revenue Management for the Hospitality Industry. Hoboken, NJ: John Wiley and Sons. (ISBN: 978-0-470-39308-6)

Assessment Opportunities

Reflections

9%

Throughout the semester (more often than not), I will pose a reflection question to you at the beginning of the class which addresses some aspect from your reading or homework for class. If you have done your reading and homework, you should be able to address the questions easily. You cannot use any resources. The questions are not available in advance and cannot be made up if you have an unexcused absence or tardy (only those with a University excused absence can make up the assignment). I am not looking for a 6-page response to an essay question but rather a ½ page to a page thoughtful response in consideration of your reading and homework. Questions may also be posed at the end of each guest speaker's presentation and are designed to encourage active listening and participation with guest speakers.

Exams (3@14 pts each)

42%

Three tests will be given throughout the semester. These are intended to assess your learning to each point in the semester and will not be cumulative in nature but may require an understanding of concepts learned in the early parts of the semester.

Case Studies (13@3 pts each) 39%

At the end of each chapter there is a case study for further application of the principles addressed in each chapter. You will be responsible for reading the case studies and addressing the questions. Your responses should be carefully constructed to demonstrate mastery of the chapter concepts and should reflect your learning in terms of vocabulary and discussion. Please do not underestimate the effort needed for these case studies. All of your responses should be typed. No late work or handwritten papers will be accepted.

STR Report Reflection

10%

You will be asked to review a STR report for a specific destination. You should outline your findings and observations of your destination based on the information in the STR report.

Grading Scale

Α	90-100%
В	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
⊏	Ralow 600	1

Extra Credit

Extra credit is doing something above and beyond what is expected of you at this level. Coming to class when it is cold and rainy or doing work that is assigned and expected of everyone is not going above and beyond – it is doing what is expected of you at this level. I typically do not give extra credit. I find if you are a responsible student and do your work that is initially assigned, you won't need extra credit and if you are an irresponsible student and can't do the work initially assigned, you don't deserve something extra to help you pass.

Submission of Assignments

Specific instructions for assignments should be outlined on supplemental assignment sheets and may direct you to alternative submission methods/requirements. Follow the specific assignment instructions but in general: assignments are due at the beginning of class. Plan for the unexpected – no paper, broken printer, no computers available, etc. Late work will not be accepted for full credit.

Course Policies

Course Policies:

Submission of Assignments:

Specific requirements will be provided with each assignment but submissions must be on time and typed unless they are done in class.

Attendance Policy.

Timely appearances and class attendance is expected each day. S.R. 5.2.4.2 defines the following as acceptable reasons for excused absences: serious illness; illness or death of family member; University-related trips; major religious holidays; other circumstances you find to be "reasonable cause for nonattendance".

Excused Absences:

Students need to notify the professor of absences prior to class when possible. S.R. 5.2.4.2 defines the following as acceptable reasons for excused absences: (a) serious illness; (b) illness or death of family member, (c) University-related trips, (d) major religious holidays, and (e) other circumstances found to fit "reasonable cause for nonattendance" by the professor.

Students anticipating an absence for a major religious holiday are responsible for notifying the instructor in writing of anticipated absences due to their observance of such holidays no later than the last day in the semester to add a class. Information regarding dates of major religious holidays may be obtained through the religious liaison, Mr. Jake Karnes (859-257-2754).

Students are expected to withdraw from the class if more than 20% of the classes scheduled for the semester are missed (excused or unexcused) per university policy.

Verification of Absences:

Students may be asked to verify their absences in order for them to be considered excused. Senate Rule 5.2.4.2 states that faculty have the right to request "appropriate verification" when students claim an excused absence because of illness or death in the family. Appropriate notification of absences due to university-related trips is required prior to the absence.

Academic Integrity:

Per university policy, students shall not plagiarize, cheat, or falsify or misuse academic records. Students are expected to adhere to University policy on cheating and plagiarism in all courses. The minimum penalty for a first offense is a zero on the assignment on which the offense occurred. If the offense is considered severe or the student has other academic offenses on their record, more serious penalties, up to suspension from the university may be imposed.

Plagiarism and cheating are serious breaches of academic conduct. Each student is advised to become familiar with the various forms of academic dishonesty as explained in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Complete information can be found at the following website: http://www.uky.edu/Ombud. A plea of ignorance is not acceptable as a defense against the charge of academic dishonesty. It is important that you review this information as all ideas borrowed from others need to be properly credited.

Part II of Student Rights and Responsibilities (available online http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code/part2.html) states that all academic work, written or otherwise, submitted by students to their instructors or other academic supervisors, is expected to be the result of their own thought, research, or self-expression. In cases where students feel unsure about the question of plagiarism involving their own work, they are obliged to consult their instructors on the matter before submission.

When students submit work purporting to be their own, but which in any way borrows ideas, organization, wording or anything else from another source without appropriate acknowledgement of the fact, the students are guilty of plagiarism. Plagiarism includes reproducing someone else's work, whether it be a published article, chapter of a book, a paper from a friend or some file, or something similar to this. Plagiarism also includes the practice of employing or allowing another person to alter or revise the work which a student submits as his/her own, whoever that other person may be.

Students may discuss assignments among themselves or with an instructor or tutor, but when the actual work is done, it must be done by the student, and the student alone. When a student's assignment involves research in outside sources of information, the student must carefully acknowledge exactly what, where and how he/she employed them. If the words of someone else are used, the student must put quotation marks around the passage in question and add an appropriate indication of its origin. Making simple changes while leaving the organization, content and phraseology intact is plagiaristic. However, nothing in these Rules shall apply to those ideas which are so generally and freely circulated as to be a part of the public domain (Section 6.3.1).

Please note: Any assignment you turn in may be submitted to an electronic database to check for plagiarism.

Accommodations due to disability:

If you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodations, please see me as soon as possible during scheduled office hours. In order to receive accommodations in this course, you must provide me with a Letter of Accommodation from the Disability Resource Center (Room 2, Alumni Gym, 257-2754, email address: jkarnes@email.uky.edu) for coordination of campus disability services available to students with disabilities.

Final Exam Information

More detailed information will be provided but the final exam will be given during the university assigned Final exam for this class period.
