Dear Janie:

Please consider this a title of degree name change for both the undergraduate and graduate program in the School of Interiors in the College of Design. We request the name change parallel our rebranding and program changes of 2013-2014. Moreover, the name change parallels shifts in the design industry to be more inclusive of several paths for design practice.

The name for each degree should read:

Bachelor of Arts, Interiors: Planning | Strategy | Design
Master of Arts, Interiors: Planning | Strategy | Design

Please let me know if I can provide further information regarding this request.

Sincerely,

Patrick Lee Lucas, Director and Associate Professor

Dear Janie:

As the chief academic officer of the College of Design, I fully support the title of degree name change requested by our School of Interiors: Planning | Strategy | Design. This change falls in line with our mission as the College of Design to provide transformative experiences for aspiring designers. I urge the approval of the Senate Council regarding this matter.

Sincerely,
