Master's of Music in Music Therapy (equivalency or prerequisite component only). In the field of music therapy, students without an undergraduate degree in music therapy who wish to pursue a master's degree in music therapy may do so by remediating any missed entry-level (i.e., undergraduate or prerequisite) competencies. This is commonly known as an "equivalency" within the field. This course would only be required for students pursuing a master's degree who must first satisfy any prerequisites for the advanced degree. In other words, this course is a prerequisite or equivalency course that remediates missed competencies normally acquired at the undergraduate level. This course does not count toward the credits required for the actual master's degree.
- b. Will this course be a new requirement⁵ for ANY program? YES NO

Course Description: This course is directed toward developing entry-level competencies needed in the field of music therapy and is geared toward individuals with non-music therapy undergraduate degrees who wish to obtain an equivalency in music therapy. Classes will consist of lecture/ discussion, lab- based activities and field experience opportunities.

Course Objectives/Outcomes: By course end, students will demonstrate (a) basic knowledge of existing MT methods, techniques, materials, equipment and their applications, (b) basic knowledge of purpose, intent and function of MT for various populations, and (c) basic knowledge of the psychological and physiological aspects of musical behavior and experience

Prerequisites: Permission of the instructor. This course is required for individuals seeking either the equivalency or the Combined/Equivalency Master's Degree in Music Therapy. This course does not count toward the 30 credits needed for the master's degree.

Required Materials: (1) An Introduction to Music Therapy: Theory and Practice (3rd ed.) (Davis, Gfellar, & Thaut, 2009) and (2) Readings as Assigned
