

University Senate
October 9, 2006

On Monday, September 18, 2006, the Senate Council moved that the Senate Council express to President Todd its support of offering benefits to domestic partners, including same sex and opposite sex partners, and that the University Senate also be assayed as to its position on the issue of UK offering domestic partner benefits.

The motion passed, with six in favor and one against.