

University Senate
October 9, 2006

On Monday, October 2, 2006, the Senate Council moved that Section 6.4.1.A of the Senate Rules be amended to read as follows:

If an instructor is not a faculty employee (for example, the instructor is a teaching assistant), then the faculty employee who is ultimately responsible for signing the grade reports for the course shall normally assume the role of the instructor. However, with the agreement of the responsible faculty employee, the chair may decide either to allow the actual instructor to retain this role or to ask another employee who is directly involved with the course (for example, a course coordinator) to assume this role. In any case, the actual instructor should retain an important consultative role.

(The motion passed unanimously, and goes to the Senate with a positive recommendation.)
