I. Introduction

~~This regulation establishes the policies and procedures for the terms of appointment and reappointment of Graduate Medical Education house staff and defines their status, privileges, and benefits.~~

~~A system to identify and to keep an account of residents and clinical fellows pursuing advanced studies and specialist training in the University serves the interests of both the individuals concerned and the University. On the one hand, it provides recognition to such persons and defines their status and privileges; on the other hand, it enables the University to assess its contribution to their training program in terms of equipment, library facilities, faculty time, and space. For these reasons, the following procedures have been developed for the enrollment of residents and clinical fellows.~~

II. Jurisdiction

~~Residents and clinical fellows working~~ The training of Graduate Medical Education house staff within the ~~Medical Center under the auspices of the Medical Center~~ Colleges of Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy, Health Sciences, and Public Health or hospital administration ~~colleges and departments~~ shall be under the jurisdiction of the Provost and the Executive Vice President for Health Affairs. Certain matters may be delegated ~~by the Chancellor for the Medical Center~~ to appropriate college deans.

III. Definitions of Resident and Clinical Fellow

A. House Staff

House staff is a collective term that includes residents and fellows (also called subspecialty residents) who are enrolled in a Graduate Medical Education program. An individual member of the house staff may also be referred to as a house staff member or house officer.

House staff are students in the employ of the University who are enrolled and regularly attending classes within the meaning of "student services" as such term is used in that certain Agreement between the Federal Security Administrator and the Commonwealth of Kentucky dated to be effective January 1, 1951, as same has been amended from time to time, whereby the insurance system established by Title II of the Social Security Act was extended to employees of the Commonwealth in accordance with section 218 of the Social Security Act and Senate Bill No. 1, 1951 Extraordinary Session of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

A house staff member does not include an individual with a professional or doctoral degree who is engaged in training or research in a basic science department of a health care college or who is pursuing full-time research in a clinical department of a health care college without clinical responsibilities. However, a house staff member may be assigned for training or research in basic sciences departments as part of an approved Program.
