Collection Review Process

Overall cost increase estimates range between 5% and 6% and in some areas even higher.

Science, technology, and medical resources are estimated to increase by at least 6% to 8%.

Both print and electronic resources increase each year.

In the event that cuts are necessary for FY15, the review process is already underway in consultation with colleges, departments, and centers.

Media Depot

AV Services

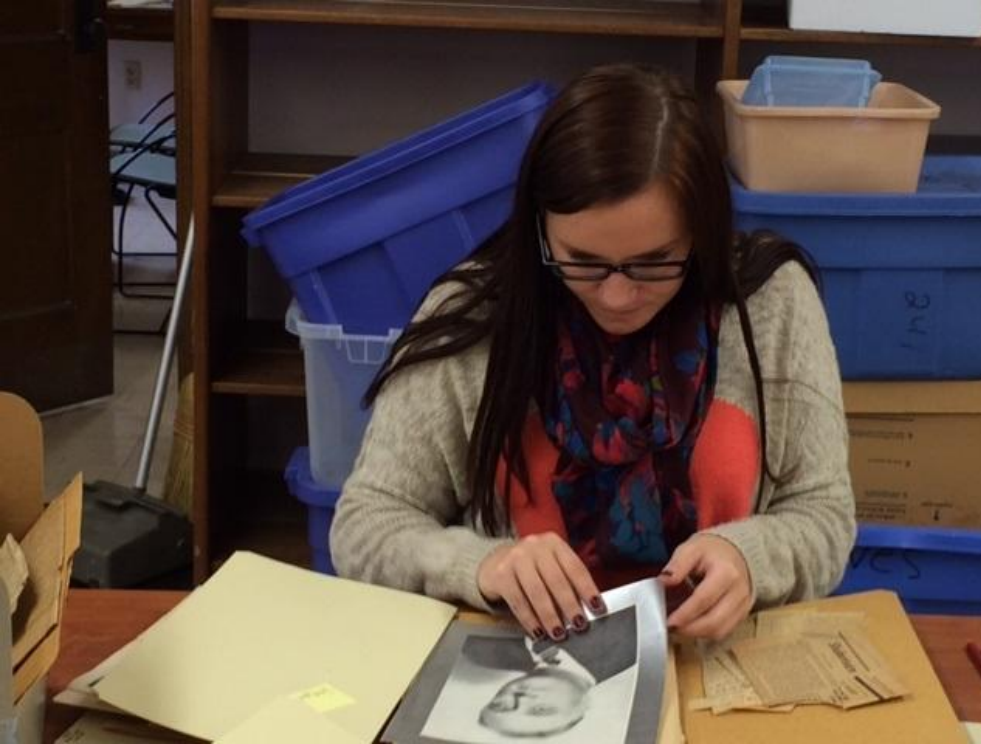

In partnership with UK Libraries, the Media Depot opened for business in the Hub in Fall 2013.

Students, faculty, and staff interact with guest speaker Kelsey Timmerman, author of “Where am I Wearing?”, the featured book of UK’s 2013 Common Reading Experience.

The Learning Lab is an experiential learning program for undergraduates that introduces them to archival theory and practice using Special Collections unique materials.

Medallion for Intellectual Achievement

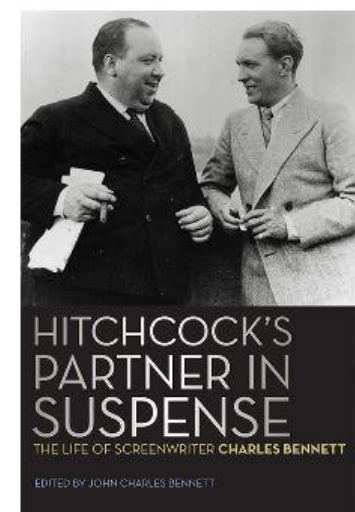

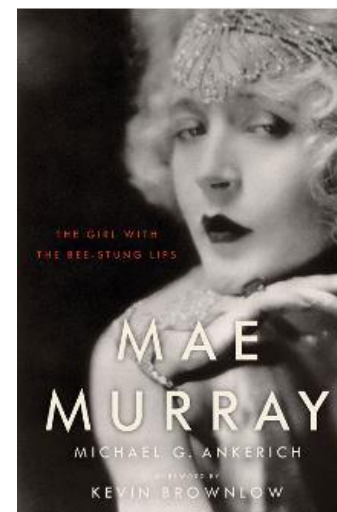

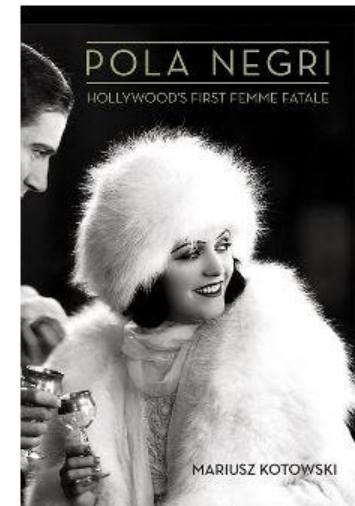

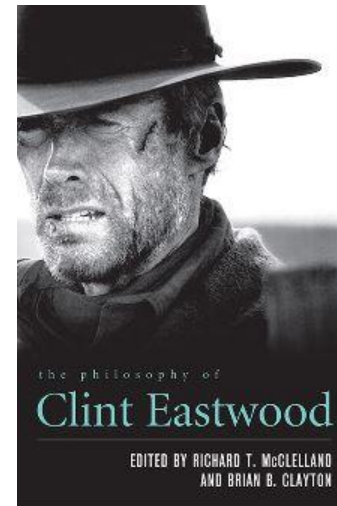

Dr. Karl Raitz, one of the country's foremost cultural geographers, received the 2014 Medallion awarded by UK Libraries.

Internationally known for his scholarship on American roads and highways and the American cultural landscape, a survey of U.S. cultural geographers named him one of the “top five most outstanding living practitioners of cultural geography.”

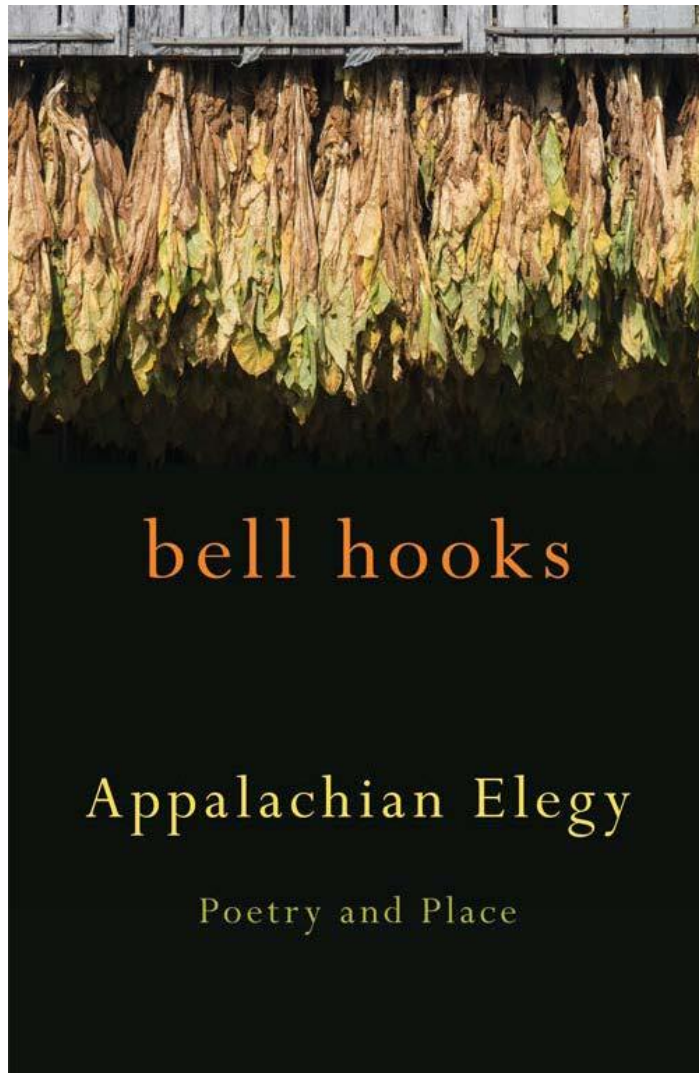

Dr. Raitz retired in December, 2013, after 43 years of service to UK and his profession.

University Press of Kentucky

The University Press of Kentucky is a scholarly publisher for the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Its commitment to film and military studies has earned it a national reputation in recent years.
