

April 25, 2017

Dear Undergraduate Council,

On behalf of the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences, the Education Policy Committee discussed and approved the changes to the MCLLC undergraduate B.A. and B.S., and the MCLLC undergraduate minor changes 8:0:1 on Tuesday, April 11, 2017.

Sincerely,

Jane Calvert
Chair, Education Policy Committee

Explanation and Rationale for MCL minor changes. Submitted Spring 2017

There are three changes being submitted. All are primarily editorial in nature and explained below.

1) The Islamic Studies track in the MCL minor should be changed to Arabic and Islamic Studies to reflect the true nature of the minor and to align it with the title of the major track which is also Arabic and Islamic Studies.

2) The first part of the MCL minor description in the bulletin should read as follows:

Minor in Modern and Classical Languages, Literatures and Cultures

The minor in Modern and Classical Languages, Literatures and Cultures requires a minimum of 18 hours of course work. Students choose one of nine options (fields of concentration) from: Arabic and Islamic Studies, Chinese Studies, Classics, Folklore and Mythology, French and Francophone Studies, German Studies, Italian Studies, Japan Studies, and Russian Studies.

Within all options of the MCL minor repeatable courses may be applied up to the maximum number of credit hours allowed for the course. Additional iterations of courses listed under core requirements may be applied under track electives. The following MCL courses count as electives for all MCL minor options.

MCL 100 The World of Language ...3

MCL 200 Global Literacy ...3

MCL 375 Language Study Abroad 1-3

MCL 376 Cultural Studies Abroad 1-3

MCL 591 Language Practicum (Subtitle required) 1-6

MCL 592 Research Practicum (Subtitle required) 1-9

MCL 593 Internship 1-12

MCL 595 Topics in Folklore and Mythology (Subtitle required) 1-6

MCL 596 Topics in Culture (Subtitle required) 1-6

MCL 597 Topics in Comparative Literary Studies (Subtitle required) 1-6

This introductory description clarifies that repeatable courses can be repeated for credit in the minor and makes clear which MCL courses from outside of the various specializations (AIS, CHI, CLA, FR, GER, ITA, JPN, and RUS) count toward completion of all tracks in the MCL minor. It also eliminates the need to list all of these courses again under each track of the minor.

3) The third and most significant change is a change in how electives for the MCL minors are listed in the catalog. The MCL minor currently has 9 tracks, each of which allows students to specialize in a particular language, culture and, in the case of folklore, cross-cultural form. The tracks each have 6-9 required hours that are specified but then accept 9-12 hours of electives from within the area of study (AIS, CHI, CLA, FR, GER, ITA, JPN, and RUS). This proposed change to the minor simply re-writes each elective track to automatically accept all 300+ courses within the particular minor track (200+ for ITA). This will clarify what is accepted for the minor tracks for students, GPS programmers and, ideally, reduce the number of changes that we will need to make to the MCL minor going forward. Currently, if any track/option in the MCL minor develops a new course and would like it to count for the MCL minor, a change of minor will need to be submitted. With this change, only courses from outside MCLLC will require a change of program form to be submitted.

4) The MCL/AIS minor currently allows students to complete the minor without taking Arabic language classics. The new wording requires students to complete three hours of Arabic language at the 300-level, bringing it into alignment with other minors in the department.

CHANGE MINOR

Once approved at the college level, your college will send the proposal to the appropriate Senate academic council (HCCC and/or UC) for review and approval. Once approved at the academic council level, the academic council will send your proposal to the Senate Council office for additional review and then a 10-day posting online, during which senators review on their own and have an option to register an objection if they so desire. If no objection is raised to the Senate Council Office within ten days of the posting the proposal, then the program change is approved. The Senate Council Office will report approvals to the Provost, Registrar and other appropriate entities, including the contact person.

For each proposed change, you MUST also include the existing requirement.

Dear Camille,

I have reviewed your documentation for the proposed changes to both the BA/BS and the Minor in Modern and Classical Languages, Literatures and Cultures. We have determined that these proposals do not constitute substantive changes for our accrediting body.

No additional information is required. The proposed program change(s) may move forward in accordance with college and university-level approval processes.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Subject: Substantive Change Form, MCLLC,

Good Morning Annie,

The College EPC is getting ready to send forward an undergraduate program change to the MCLLC degree program. I have attached the substantive change form for your review along with the program proposal. They are also making similar changes to their minor. I have attached that proposal as well.

The changes are to the track electives. MCLLC has a history of putting through program changes every year to change their guided electives. The changes in this proposal should keep their program changes to every couple of years instead of every year.

Please let me know if you need any further information.

Thank you,

Hi Julie and Jeanmarie -

The anthropology department is very happy to keep ANT 329 as an elective within the MCL Russian track. Let me know if you need any more confirmation.

Subject: Fw: MCL Major and Minor Changes

Lisa, There is one ANT course (329) that counts as elective for the MCL/Russian Studies major and minor (details below). This course has counted for donkey's years, but because of the change from a stand-alone Russian major to an MCL major with a Russian track, we need confirmation from you as chair that it's okay.

I believe an email, cc'd to Julie Human, our DUS would suffice, ideally by Monday a.m.

Thanks and if you have questions, do let me know.

Jeanmarie
