1. How does this course provide for timely and appropriate interaction between students and faculty and among students? Does the course syllabus conform to University Senate Syllabus Guidelines, specifically the Distance Learning Considerations?

2. How do you ensure that the experience for a DL student is comparable to that of a classroom-based student's experience? Aspects to explore: textbooks, course goals, assessment of student learning outcomes, etc.

3. How is the integrity of student work ensured? Please speak to aspects such as password-protected course portals, proctors for exams at interactive video sites; academic offense policy; etc.

4. Will offering this course via DL result in at least 25% or at least 50% (based on total credit hours required for completion) of a degree program being offered via any form of DL, as defined above?

If yes, which percentage, and which program(s)?

5. How are students taking the course via DL assured of equivalent access to student services, similar to that of a student taking the class in a traditional classroom setting?

6. How do course requirements ensure that students make appropriate use of learning resources?

7. Please explain specifically how access is provided to laboratories, facilities, and equipment appropriate to the course or program.

8. How are students informed of procedures for resolving technical complaints? Does the syllabus list the entities available to offer technical help with the delivery and/or receipt of the course, such as the Information Technology Customer Service Center (<http://www.uky.edu/UKIT/>)?

9. Will the course be delivered via services available through the Distance Learning Program (DLP) and the Academic Technology Group (ATL)? NO

If no, explain how student enrolled in DL courses are able to use the technology employed, as well as how students will be provided with assistance in using said technology.

10. Does the syllabus contain all the required components? NO

11. I, the instructor of record, have read and understood all of the university-level statements regarding DL.

Course Description

Studies in philosophical problems which either cut across or lie outside the standard areas of philosophical inquiry. May be repeated to a maximum of fifteen credits under different subtitles.

Student Learning Outcomes

After completing this course, the student will be able to:

1. Describe key themes in Hegelian idealism.
2. Analyze contemporary thought relating to Hegelian idealism.
3. Prepare a seminar paper on Hegelian idealism.

Hegel's Idealism

The course aims to give a general understanding of the project of Hegel's absolute idealism and how it has been taken up by recent scholarship. We will try to get clearer about what Hegel's absolute idealism is, what Hegel means by truth and by dialectic. This course is meant to help students understand the big picture and prepare them to read Hegel on their own.

The course will proceed with readings of Hegel's early work Faith and Knowledge and selections from the Phenomenology of Spirit. After this we will turn to some recent interpretations of this text (Brandom, McDowell, Pippin). Then we will read the Introduction as well as the Logic section of the Encyclopedia of the Philosophical Sciences, turning finally to readings of Hegel by Heidegger, Adorno and Derrida.

Schedule

Weeks 1-3: The Young Hegel

Week 1, 9/9: Hegel, "Faith and Knowledge", Pippin "Concepts and Intuitions"

Week 2, 9/16: Hegel PhG: Preface

Week 3, 9/23: Hegel PhG: M-S

Weeks 4-6: Pittsburg Idealism

Week 4, 9/30: Brandom: "Hegel's Holism" and "Animating Ideas of German Idealism"

Week 5, 10/7: McDowell: "Hegel's Idealism as Radicalization of Kant" and "The Apperceptive I and the Empirical Self"

Week 6, 10/14: Pippin, Hegel on Self-Consciousness

Weeks 7-11: Hegel's Encyclopedia Logic

Week 7, 10/21: Introduction to the Encyclopedia: Prefaces, Introduction §§1-18, "Vorbegriff" A, §§19-36

Week 8, 10/28: "Vorbegriff" B and C, §§37-83.

Week 9, 11/4: Logic of Being

Week 10, 11/11: Logic of Essence

Week 11, 11/18: Logic of the Concept

Weeks 12-14: Idealism and the German Tradition

Week 12, 11/25: Adorno, "Skoteinos; or How to Read Hegel"

Week 13, 12/2: Heidegger, "Hegel's Concept of Experience"

Week 14, 12/9: Derrida: "From Restricted to General Economy: A Hegelianism without Reserve"

Texts:

I have ordered the Hackett translation of Hegel's Encyclopedia Logic (tr. Theodore F. Geraets, W. A. Suchting and H. S. Harris) as well as Pippin's Hegel on Self-Consciousness (Princeton) at the bookstore. You can use any of the recent editions of Hegel's Encyclopedia (Cambridge, Brinkmann and Dahlstrom; Oxford, Findlay and Miller) or consult the German (Suhrkamp Theorie Edition is the easiest to get, the Gesammelte Werke, vol. 20 is the most authoritative). In any case, we will discuss the readings by paragraph numbers so there should be no problem. I also assume that you possess a copy of Hegel's Phenomenology, probably the Oxford translation by Miller. Pinkard's bilingual edition is good and available on the internet. All other texts will be distributed by me via PDF.

Requirements:

Paper: I'll expect a research paper at the end of the semester, 15-25p in length. You'll need to work up a topic toward the end of the semester, and consult me about it. (80% of grade)

Presentations: Each student will be required to give a 20 minute presentation (no longer) on one of the weekly readings. This presentation will not summarize but will ask a question of the text, make a criticism or will engage in some other constructive way with the text. (20% of grade)

Grading scale for graduate students (no D for Grad Students):

90-100% = A

80 - 89% = B

70 - 79% = C

Submission of Assignments

All assignments are to be turned in by hardcopy. No late work accepted except for excused absences.

Excused Absences

Students need to notify the professor of absences prior to class when possible. Senate Rules 5.2.4.2 defines the following as acceptable reasons for excused absences: (a) serious illness, (b) illness or death of family member, (c) University-related trips, (d) major religious holidays, and (e) other circumstances found to fit "reasonable cause for nonattendance" by the professor.

Students anticipating an absence for a major religious holiday are responsible for notifying the instructor in writing of anticipated absences due to their observance of such holidays no later than the last day in the semester to add a class. Two weeks prior to the absence is reasonable, but should not be given any later. Information regarding major religious holidays may be obtained through the Ombud (859-257-3737, http://www.uky.edu/Ombud/ForStudents\_ExcusedAbsences.php).

Students are expected to withdraw from the class if more than 20% of the classes scheduled for the semester are missed (excused) per University policy.

Per Senate Rule 5.2.4.2, students missing any graded work due to an excused absence are responsible: for informing the Instructor of Record about their excused absence within one week following the period of the excused absence (except where prior notification is required); and for making up the missed work. The professor must give the student an opportunity to make up the work and/or the exams missed due to an excused absence, and shall do so, if feasible, during the semester in which the absence occurred.

Verification of Absences

Students may be asked to verify their absences in order for them to be considered excused. Senate Rule 5.2.4.2 states that faculty have the right to request “appropriate verification” when students claim an excused absence because of illness, or death in the family. Appropriate notification of absences due to University-related trips is required prior to the absence when feasible and in no case more than one week after the absence.

Academic Integrity

Per University policy, students shall not plagiarize, cheat, or falsify or misuse academic records. Students are expected to adhere to University policy on cheating and plagiarism in all courses. The minimum penalty for a first offense is a zero on the assignment on which the offense occurred. If the offense is considered severe or the student has other academic offenses on their record, more serious penalties, up to suspension from the University may be imposed.

Plagiarism and cheating are serious breaches of academic conduct. Each student is advised to become familiar with the various forms of academic dishonesty as explained in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Complete information can be found at the following website: <http://www.uky.edu/Ombud>. A plea of ignorance is not acceptable as a defense against the charge of academic dishonesty. It is important that you review this information as all ideas borrowed from others need to be properly credited.

Senate Rules 6.3.1 (see <http://www.uky.edu/Faculty/Senate/> for the current set of Senate Rules) states that all academic work, written or otherwise, submitted by students to their instructors or other academic supervisors, is expected to be the result of their own thought, research, or self-expression. In cases where students feel unsure about a question of plagiarism involving their work, they are obliged to consult their instructors on the matter before submission.

When students submit work purporting to be their own, but which in any way borrows ideas, organization, wording, or content from another source without appropriate acknowledgment of the fact, the students are guilty of plagiarism.

Plagiarism includes reproducing someone else's work (including, but not limited to a published article, a book, a website, computer code, or a paper from a friend) without clear attribution. Plagiarism also includes the practice of employing or allowing another person to alter or revise the work, which a student submits as his/her own, whoever that other person may be. Students may discuss assignments among themselves or with an instructor or tutor, but when the actual work is done, it must be done by the student, and the student alone.

When a student's assignment involves research in outside sources or information, the student must carefully acknowledge exactly what, where and how he/she has employed them. If the words of someone else are used, the student must put quotation marks around the passage in question and add an appropriate indication of its origin. Making simple changes while leaving the organization, content, and phraseology intact is plagiaristic. However, nothing in these Rules shall apply to those ideas, which are so generally and freely circulated as to be a part of the public domain.

Please note: Any assignment you turn in may be submitted to an electronic database to check for plagiarism.

Accommodations due to disability

If you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodations, please see me as soon as possible during scheduled office hours. In order to receive accommodations in this course, you must provide me with a Letter of Accommodation from the Disability Resource Center (DRC). The DRC coordinates campus disability services available to students with disabilities. It is located on the corner of Rose Street and Huguelet Drive in the Multidisciplinary Science Building, Suite 407. You can reach them via phone at (859) 257-2754 and via email at drc@uky.edu. Their web address is <http://www.uky.edu/DisabilityResourceCenter>.
