Subject: Reproductive Sciences Courses

I wanted to give an update to those who are reviewing the courses associated with the new PhD program in Reproductive Sciences (RSC700, RSC701, RSC702, RSC703, RSC767 and RSC790). The PhD program is currently being reviewed by myself, Geza Bruckner and Chris Schardl. It would be best if we can review the courses and the program at the same time. I will let you know when we are ready to bring the PhD program forward for Graduate Council review, such that we can (hopefully) coordinate all the reviews at the same meeting.

Thanks,
Brett
