14. Rationale for Change(s) – if rationale involves accreditation requirements, please include specific references to that.

The B.A. degree in Art Studio must be revised to keep up with current curricular needs of our student body and to respond to faculty assessment of the degree program. With this program change proposal, we are removing courses that will no longer be taught, changing the credit hour requirements of 300-500 level courses in art studio, updating the bulletin text and organization, updating a course title and otherwise removing roadblocks to graduation. In addition we are removing the statement about a BA Entrance Portfolio, as the faculty has deemed it an unnecessary stipulation.

In 2010 the art studio faculty put in place a required minor, while this was a well-intentioned decision, it has become a bottle-neck for our students. The requirement of a minor has prevented students from graduating on time, or in a reasonable timeline (for transfer students) thus this requirement is being removed. Many students will still be able to earn a minor or double major, but eliminating the requirement allows for student choice and helps our students complete their degree in four-years. ART 191 Arts Professions and A-S 201 Professional Practices in Art Studio will no longer be taught. Since these courses will no longer be taught, they need to be removed from the major requirements.

CHANGE UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM FORM

In response to assessment of the B.A degree, the faculty determined that students must take at least 1 art studio course at the 500 level. This will increase the depth of study in one or two media areas and allow for greater development. Therefore the requirement of 24 hours of 300 level art studio courses will be changed to 21 hours in order to allow for the additional 3 hours of a 500 level art studio course.

Given this review of our curriculum, we are also taking time to re-write sections of the bulletin for greater clarity and to remove items that are causing “bottlenecks” in our program. We are removing the stipulation that students majoring in Art Studio may use no more than three credit hours of courses meeting Major Requirements to fulfill UK Core Requirements. This requirement is creating unnecessary “bottlenecks” and not allowing students to complete their degree in four years. We are also removing the regulation that students must have completed the studio core major requirement prior to applying for the B.F.A program. This stipulation has also delayed students’ progression towards graduating in four years.

All of these curricular changes are in line with the standards set by NASAD, our accrediting organization and are in part response to our latest accreditation review
