1. How does this course provide for timely and appropriate interaction between students and faculty and among students? Does the course syllabus conform to University Senate Syllabus Guidelines, specifically the Distance Learning Considerations?

2. How do you ensure that the experience for a DL student is comparable to that of a classroom-based student's experience? Aspects to explore: textbooks, course goals, assessment of student learning outcomes, etc.

3. How is the integrity of student work ensured? Please speak to aspects such as password-protected course portals, proctors for exams at interactive video sites; academic offense policy; etc.

4. Will offering this course via DL result in at least 25% or at least 50% (based on total credit hours required for completion) of a degree program being offered via any form of DL, as defined above?

If yes, which percentage, and which program(s)?

5. How are students taking the course via DL assured of equivalent access to student services, similar to that of a student taking the class in a traditional classroom setting?

6. How do course requirements ensure that students make appropriate use of learning resources?

7. Please explain specifically how access is provided to laboratories, facilities, and equipment appropriate to the course or program.

8. How are students informed of procedures for resolving technical complaints? Does the syllabus list the entities available to offer technical help with the delivery and/or receipt of the course, such as the Information Technology Customer Service Center (<http://www.uky.edu/UKIT/>)?

9. Will the course be delivered via services available through the Distance Learning Program (DLP) and the Academic Technology Group (ATL)? NO

If no, explain how student enrolled in DL courses are able to use the technology employed, as well as how students will be provided with assistance in using said technology.

10. Does the syllabus contain all the required components? NO

11. I, the instructor of record, have read and understood all of the university-level statements regarding DL.

TAD 143-001
JAZZ DANCE
Course Syllabus

Course Time: M/W 9:30-10:45am

Location: Fine Arts Building – Room 117-FA

Semester: Fall 2013

Instructor: Jeromy Smith

Email: jeromy.smith@uky.edu

Phone: (Dept. of Theatre Office: 859-257-3297)

Office Hours: By Appointment

Course Description:

This class will be an introduction to the art of Jazz Dance. Jazz Dance is the integration of several different components including technique, style, strength, flexibility and musicality. Through the course of the semester, students will learn basic jazz technique, work on developing strength and flexibility, practice dance technique through varied across the floor and center progressions, and learn and perform varying styles of jazz dance through choreographed combinations.

Required Texts:

None.

Students may be given reading handouts periodically to supplement in-class discussions and demonstrations.

Course Goals:

- To provide knowledge about Jazz dance vocabulary and technique
- To enhance skills in in technical ability, different jazz styles, performance and audition skills.
- To enhance skills in dance vocabulary.

Learning Outcomes:

- Command a basic knowledge of jazz dance vocabulary and technique
- Have a sense of the different styles and history of jazz dance
- Comprehend a basic understanding of jazz dance and its terminology
- Perform choreographic combinations from each learning unit in varying styles
- Gain performance and audition skills

Course Policies:

Disabilities

If you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodation, please see me as soon as possible.

Attendance

Attendance is IMPERATIVE, for the progression of the individual student and the class as a whole. Attendance/Effort/Dress is also 50% of the Grading/Assessment Policy. You MUST attend every class, properly dressed and ready to dance in order to succeed in this class. You will be allowed two (2) unexcused absences. Following that, each additional unexcused absence WILL result in a 5-point deduction from your overall Attendance/Effort/Dress score (100 points). (See Grading/Assessment Section for more details.)

University Regulations states that students are entitled to an excused absence for the purpose of observing their major religious holiday if the instructor is notified, in writing, by the university deadline for the semester (no later than the last day for adding a class).

The only other excused absences are a documented serious illness, illness or death of a family/household member, and officially documented University-related trips.

Signing In

Attendance will be taken via Sign-In Sheet. The Sign-In will be available at least 10 minutes before the class begins and will be taken up at the start of class. Anyone not signed in will be marked absent/unexcused. You MUST NEVER sign in for anyone other than yourself. If a student signs in for another person, BOTH students will be marked absent/unexcused for that class.

Tardiness

Tardiness will not be tolerated. The class will begin on time. The warm-up section of class is ESSENTIAL for proper preparation for the class and injury prevention. Two tardies will count as one unexcused absence.

Illness/Injury

If an illness or injury prevents you from being able to physically participate in the class, you may be permitted to observe the class. If you observe, you must take notes on the progression of the day's work and turn them in at the end of the class. You will be allowed one "free" observance per semester. Following that, any observance must be accompanied by a doctor's note. Every two observances without doctor's note will count as an unexcused absence.

Dress Code

Students are expected to be properly dressed for dance. For Women: Jazz pants or leggings with form-fitting tops or t-shirts, leotards and tights or unitards are acceptable. For Men: Jazz or Athletic pants and form-fitting t-shirts, dance shirts or muscle shirts are acceptable. Warm-ups and sweatshirts may be worn during warm-ups but must be removed after. The dance clothing must be form-fitting so that alignment and proper form can be visible to both student and teacher, so that appropriate feedback and corrections may be given.

Students may wear jazz shoes. Jazz Sneakers are permitted, but not preferred. Bare feet are acceptable for Warm-Up ONLY and tennis shoes or other athletic shoes are not acceptable for class.

Hair must be secured, up and away from the face. Jewelry should be kept to a minimum.

Corrections

From time to time, Instructors may need to give corrections through physical touch to help the student understand proper form and alignment.

Deadlines

All work must be submitted on or before the deadline (day and time) specified for each. Late work will not be graded. For In-class Choreographic Evaluations, there will be no make-ups for unexcused absences. You must attend in order to receive credit for your Evaluation. In the case of an excused absence on an Evaluation day, student and Instructor will find a mutually agreeable time to make up the Evaluation.

Plagiarism

The Academic Ombud is responsible for dealing with cases of plagiarism and cheating. Make sure you know how these offenses are defined. You will find this information in your copy of Students Rights and Responsibilities.

Assessment Methods and Assignments

Assessments/Grading will be determined by class attendance, effort and commitment; retention and performance of choreographic material; and the outside research project.

Attendance, Effort and Proper Dress	50%
In-Class Choreographic Evaluations	30%
Final Written Project/Critique	10%
Final Exam	10%

Grading Scale

90-100:	A
80-89:	B

70-79: C
60-69: D
59 and below: E

Mid-term grades will be posted in myUK by the deadline established in the Academic Calendar (<http://www.uky.edu/Registrar/AcademicCalendar.htm>)

Attendance, Effort and Proper Dress:

Please see Policies section for specifics on Attendance, Tardiness and Illness/Injury. In addition, students not dressed properly and not putting forth commitment and effort to learn will be noted. If the Instructor notices a problem with either, the student will be given a warning. Following the warning, points may be deducted, at Instructor's discretion.

(Attendance/Effort/Dress is based on a 100 point scale, and worth 50% of your grade.)

In-Class Choreographic Evaluations:

The semester has been broken into several units (see Calendar.) During each unit, students will learn a choreographic combination for that particular unit. At the end of the unit, students will perform the combination in small groups for a grade. Please note – perfection is not expected! The Instructor will be looking for overall retention of the choreography, a grasp of the style, attention to corrections and adjustments and overall effort within that unit. Each unit combination will be worth 100 points. The average of all scores will constitute the 30% for In-Class Choreographic Evaluations.

Final Written Project/Critique:

Students will be required to write a 2-3 page paper critiquing/comparing clips of jazz dance from the past and present. Students will be given a list of "past" and "present" YouTube Clips. Students need to choose one clip from each list. Then, please critique both clips. Critiques should include the name of the piece being critiqued and the choreographer plus discussion of style, staging, choreography, performance, costumes and scenic elements. Finally, please compare the two clips. The comparison should include your thoughts on how the styles may or may not complement each other, how they contrast and their relevancy to each other.

Final Exam:

Students will participate in a mock audition for the final exam. Requirements will be specified later in the semester. The Final Exam will be on Tuesday, December 17 from 8:30-10am.

Got it.

This is for the dance minor (not a major). A handful of the participating students are theatre majors, but mostly from all over the university.

Most of the dance classes are 2 credits. (Incidentally our Dance Minor has grown from 6 minors when we started it 3 years ago to 53+ right now!) We have a limited number of classes in the Dance Minor program, but our students need and want to repeat technique classes so they can continue to perform in the concerts and other performance opportunities. Although they are not REQUIRED to repeat the classes, they would receive credit for them should they choose to take them, or have time within the limitations of their selected major program. Our Theatre Majors have a 45 credit B.A. degree. When you add the 30 credits of UK Core, and 21 credits of a Dance Minor you still only have 96 credits. They could repeat lots of these classes to get to their 120 hours to graduate.

Does that help?

Nancy

Hi Nancy, Yes, but it would help if you could address how they can repeat so many times without impacting degree progression....that seems to be the concern...thanks! Karen

Subject: Undergraduate Council Question

Hi Nancy, we are in UGC and reviewing your TAD courses that can be repeated up to 6 times. Can you provide an explanation/rationale for this? How would doing so impact degree completion? Can other college students take these or are they limited to TAD majors? Thanks!! Karen

The following explanation describes the rationale for changing the ability of students to be able to repeat this course. This Dance Technique class will allow students to build on their technical dance skills each semester they enroll in the class. Moreover, students will learn new choreographic material each time they enroll in the class, therefore the class material is not repeated, only the structure of the class remains the same. Our accreditation agency, N.A.S.T. recommends that students be allowed to enroll in performance classes of this nature multiple times, much the same as they would for private voice or music lessons.
