Senate Council and University Senate Activities:
c. Curricular Approval Process

There are a number of individuals involved in the curricular approval process, the vast majority of whom work together closely to shepherd proposals through the process.

Margaret Mohr-Schroeder	Chair, Senate's Academic Programs Committee (ED/STEM Education)
Annie Davis Weber	Assistant Provost for Strategic Planning and Institutional Effectiveness
Sheila Brothers	Senate Council Coordinator
Carl Mattacola	Health Care Colleges Council Chair (HS/Rehabilitation Sciences)
Meredith Houlihan	Health Care Colleges Council Coordinator
Brian Jackson	Graduate Council Chair (ME/Physiology)
Roshan Nikou	Graduate Council Coordinator
Amy Spriggs	Undergraduate Council Chair (ED/Early Childhood, Special Ed, & Rehabilitation Counseling)
Joanie Ett-Mims	Undergraduate Council Coordinator
Miranda Hines	Distance Learning Programs
Elizabeth Leibach	International Center
Kirsten Turner	Associate Provost for Academic Excellence Operations, Provost's Liaison to SC

What, specifically, do you hear from faculty colleagues about pinch points in the curricular approval process? What aspects are the most confusing? What could be done differently to help faculty proposers?
