

Selection Criteria for University Senate Award

Purpose: to recognize one or more Senators for their outstanding contributions to the University Senate

1. Nominee has contributed to the University Senate by showing active and exemplary service on one or more Senate committees during his/her tenure.
2. Nominee has made notable substantive contributions in communicating with the Senate and administration while working with the faculty at large on important issues that impact the faculty mission at the University of Kentucky.
3. Nominee has consistently given strong voice to faculty issues in forums such as Senate meetings, public events, and/or local/regional news media and actively defended the principle of shared governance in University forums and debates.
4. Nominee is effective in promoting and supporting the Senate's broader agenda and goals.
5. Nominee has provided exemplary service critical for the success of faculty governance at the University of Kentucky.

Nominating letters or emails should include specific evidence and examples of how the candidate has met the above criteria. Winners of the award are selected by an ad hoc committee of the Senate Council. Current and former senators are eligible to be nominated, but current members of the Senate Council are not eligible for nomination.
